Do not think me indifferent and ungrateful if your last letter remains unacknowledged till now. We have been, as you know, very busy with the Prince's visit, which, I am glad to say, was a striking success.

I have recently received a letter from the Maharaja of Kashmir inviting me to Kashmir. I propose writing to him to say that I am unable to go there this year, at all events. He says he has an idea of coming to Mysore, but that, as you know, is nothing new.

So far as business matters are concerned, I do not suppose I need say anything here. I am kept fully in touch with the correspondence that is going on between you and Mirza.

I hope you are all keeping well. Please remember me to Sirdar Javahir Singh. I regret I entirely forgot to say goodbye to him at Puri.

With sincerest good wishes,

Raja Sir Daljit Singh, K.B.E., C.S.I.,

Jallundar City.
